A UNION FOR YOU

If you're moving on to another employer, we can still advise, support and represent you if you find yourself with a problem at work.

You're entitled by law to join a union of your choice and to be accompanied by your union at disciplinary or grievance hearings. If there is no recognised union in your workplace, it make sense to stick with Accord.

WHY STICK WITH ACCORD?

Although your new employer may not recognise Accord for collective bargaining purposes (negotiating your pay, benefits, etc), in law it has to respect your entitlement to be a member of a union of your choice. You spend many of your waking hours in work and, for the most part, you're likely to travel a smooth path. But from time to time, things can go wrong.

You may make a mistake and find yourself being invited to a formal disciplinary hearing; your new manager takes a dislike to you and you don't know how to stand up for yourself; you think you're being paid less than you should, your rights to holidays and other time off are not being granted... Accord can advise on these and all other employment related matters. We can represent you in any formal grievance, harassment or disciplinary meetings.

Everyone needs a friend at work – make Accord your best friend by staying with us as an associate member.

WHAT IS ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP?

Associate membership offers individual representation, advice and support, together with a benefits package.

You retain all the benefits you're used to for a reduced monthly rate.

I'M NO LONGER WORKING - CAN I STILL BE AN ASSOCIATE MEMBER?

Of course - associate membership isn't just for those moving on to another employer, it also offers some great benefits for retired members or those who want to stay in touch with Accord and continue to support our work.

All you have to do is give us a call and we'll switch your membership to associate status - it's as simple as that!

A UNION FOR LIFE

WHAT MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS WILL I HAVE ACCESS TO?

You'll still have access to a wide range of exclusive benefits making associate membership great value for money. Including...

Tax helpline - if you think you might have paid too much tax, you can call the free 'Tax Matters' helpline. It's a confidential service for Accord members and their immediate families. Similar advice would cost between £150 and £200 per hour if independently sought.
