

Our support services

Supporting the banking community past and present

We're here to help

We're independent of banks and our services are free and confidential.

Who we support

We exist to help bank employees and their families across the UK. We do this by providing advice, information, expert support and, in some cases, financial help.

Our approach

We partner with some of the UK's leading organisations to provide you with specialist support, and we'll work with you to find the best solution.

If you're not sure whether we can help, it's always worth getting in touch. Call us on 0800 0234 834 or head over to our website to use Live Chat.

Our support services

Mental health

We can offer you support and, in some cases, counselling or other therapies to look after your mental wellbeing.

Debt and money management

We'll work with you to help you manage your debt, find out if you're entitled to benefits or get support with budgeting.

Financial support/Grants

We may be able to provide you with financial support with general living expenses and long-term costs such as disability aids or home adaptations.

Disability and long-term conditions

We can give you advice on getting the support you need to manage a disability or long-term health condition.

Caring responsibilities

We'll help you find out how to access financial, legal and practical support for you and the person you care for.

Relationships

We can provide guidance and counselling to improve your relationships, or get help if you're experiencing domestic abuse.

Bereavement

We can help you deal with the emotional and practical aspects of losing someone close to you.

Legal advice

We can offer you a telephone consultation with legal experts who can advise you on most aspects of British law.
