Who is Accord?

Accord is a modern trade union for staff in Lloyds Banking Group, TSB and subsidiary companies. Accord is funded only by members' subscriptions.

We're an independent trade union, affiliated to the Trades Union Congress (TUC) and Scottish TUC. We have over 21,000 members.

We believe we have an important role to play in helping employees feel positive about their employment and enjoy their jobs. We aim to be your voice at work.

We're committed to equality and diversity and actively oppose all forms of harassment, prejudice and unfair discrimination.

Accord is an open, transparent and responsible union - committed to putting our members' interests first. We campaign every day for job security, fair reward and dignity at work.

What does Accord do?

We provide individual advice, support and representation to members on issues including illness, performance management, harassment and disciplinary action. Our job is to make sure you're treated fairly at work.

As well as advice and support, we negotiate with the bank on your behalf on a range of issues. Things like pay, holidays, terms and conditions of employment and more.

We'll be there for you when you need someone on your side. Think of us as an insurance policy for your job and you'll be on the right lines.

Why should I join?

Accord's relationship with LBG & TSB is valued and respected on both sides. Staff are encouraged to join either Accord or Unite - the only two unions both employers negotiate with on behalf of all employees.

Your membership will help the campaigns for better pay and conditions. It will also help to ensure that workplace changes are negotiated rather than imposed.

And, of course, we're there for you whenever you need advice, support or assistance on any issues relating to your employment

Accord has five top priorities for you:

- ✓ Security
- ✓ Fair reward
- ✓ Dignity at work
- ✓ Support
- ✓ Equality
